SPEAKS OF TOLSTOI.

The Rev. T. Van Ness Tells Y. M. C. A. of His Life and Character.

At the meeting of the Technology Y. M. C. A. yesterday noon in the Trinity Church Parish House, Rev. Thomas Van Ness, pastor of the Second Unitarian Church, gave an intensely interesting and instructive talk on Count Leo Tolstoi, describing the great Russian reformer as he appeared during a visit which Mr. Van Ness paid him while in Russia some years ago.

Tolstoi was born in 1828. Left an orphan at an early age, he was brought up by an indulgent aunt, and saw very little of the outside world until, when a young man, he joined his brother in the Caucasus. The impressive beauty of the mountains stirred him to his first literary effort, and he published several letters in the Moscow Gazette. During the Crimean War, Tolstoi remained in Sevastopol, the center of the struggle, and from there wrote his famous and vivid descriptions of the horrors of the war.

After the war was over, and Tolstoi was again in Moscow, the first great agitation began throughout the country for the emancipation of the serfs. This was the origin of Nihilism which has since grown to enormous proportions, having for its object the destruction of the government. The situation in Russia was parallel to that in the United States before the Civil War, when the abolitionists were struggling to set slaves free. Finally, however, the Tsar emancipated at one stroke the twenty-seven million serfs, thereby throwing the country into pandemonium. Tolstoi returned to his country estate and there began his great work for the benefit of the peasants.

In speaking of his visit to the Count, Mr. Van Ness drew a vivid picture of the old man as he appears today. He is nearly eighty years old, almost a patriarch, and yet the fire and enthusiasm of youth shine out from his sunken eyes, and his tall gaunt frame, although bent, is still strong and capable of manual labor. He lives in the country in the simplest manner, surrounded by the best books of every language. A great thinker, his novels have always been written for a purpose: to right some malignant evil. His teachings have aroused many of the Russian peasants from their lethargy to strive for better manners of life. His beliefs have so alienated the Russian Church that he has been excommunicated. Were it not that he is considered mentally unbalanced by the civil authorities he would long ago have been on the way to Siberia, a road which many of his disciples have already trod. Thus he stands today, beloved by the common people, hated by the government, but withal a shining light in the midst of Russia's disorder and blackness.

READING AT KOMMERS.

Prof. Swain to Entertain Students at Union Tomorrow Night.

Prof. Swain, who has succeeded so well in interesting the men of Course I. in his readings, will be the guest of honor at the Kommers tomorrow night. In the course of the evening he will read several passages of his own selection, and judging from his previous choice of subjects, the pieces will all be excellent. An exceptionally good dinner will be served at the usual price, and Mr. Rand hopes for a large audience. In fact, he expects that every student who enjoys pleasant books and good reading will attend.

Next week it is expected that Pres. Lucius Tuttle of the Boston & Maine Railroad will make an address, and Bursar Rand also hopes to get Pres. Pritchett to speak.

DR. PUTNAM GIVES LOWELL COURSE.

James Jackson Putnam, M. D., Professor of Neurology at the Harvard Medical School, and physician in the Neurological Department, Massachusetts General Hospital, will give the eleventh and last course of Lowell Institute Lectures this season on "Certain Prevalent Nervous Derangements."

The course will consist of eight lectures, on Mondays and Thursdays, beginning Monday, March 12, at 8 p.m. The subjects for the lectures are: 1—The Nervous Health of the Community, and the Influences tending to Maintain and to Impair it. 2, 3—Influences tending to Impair the Nervous Health of the Individual, especially Emotion and Fatigue. 4—The Sub-Conscious Life, in its Medical Aspects. 5—Correlations between the Mental and the Physical: Function and Structure. 6—The Power of Adaptation, considered in its Medical Relations. 7—Survey of our Means of Preserving Nervous Health. Mental Influences. 8—Ideas and Ideals.

TECH SHOW.

The following men have been selected provisionally as principals of the Show this year; Schofield, '09; Jenkins, '09; Ellis, '08; Boles, '07; Vonnegut, '08; Allen, '09; Adams, '08; Henderson, '06; Sands, '08; Hanley, '09; Coffin, '07; Bancroft, '07.

The principals will rehearse on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays at the Union. About fifty men are out for the chorus but the management desires to have a much larger number come out. There are good chances for men to make the chorus, and those fortunate enough will certainly not regret it, for this year's Show promises the best time yet. The chorus rehearses at the Union on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 4 p.m.

Mr. H. McCready has been appointed as an Assistant Business Manager.

FENCING TONIGHT.

Tech Meets Harvard and University of Pennsylvania at the Gym.

The Fencing Association will hold its third meet of the season this evening when the varsity team meets Harvard and Pennsylvania at the Gym. The varsity men are in better condition now than they were before the meet with Harvard and Columbia, and a close meet is promised. Harvard will enter the same team that won the triangular meet held Feb. 16. These men have had practice in several tournaments since that time and are reported to be in tip-top condition. Nothing can be said of the strength of the Pennsy team, as it has not competed in any meets which give an opportunity for comparison. Judging from reports, Harvard has the better team, while Technology and the U. of P. are about on a plane.

The big bout of the evening will be the one between Jorge Lage and Bowman of Harvard. Bowman is the champion of New England, and one of the best fencers in the college world. Lage beat him in the triangular meet of Feb. 16, and Bowman has sworn to get even. Lage has lost only one bout in three years. This bout should be close and exciting, as was the other.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Bowdoin is to publish a new song book, which will contain about 90 songs.

Dr. Abiann W. Harrie of the Jane Institute, Port Deposit, Md., will become the new president of the Northwestern University.

A rowing club for women is being organized at Leland Stanford University. One hundred names have been subscribed to a list, which the president of the Woman's Athletic Club has posted for entries.

The committee of the Wisconsin legislature investigating the Wisconsin State University because of many complaints, is making earnest inquiries into the fraternity question. Several professors and students testified to bad influences of Greek letter bodies at Madison.

WILLIAM A. NICHOLS, PRINTER, 208 SUMMER ST., PEAR

The communication in our last issue relative to the Junior Promenade, has brought to general notice the little support which

The Prom. is being given this Technology affair by those who, probably at the last moment, will want to derive the most pleasure from it. A man should not wait until the last two or three weeks to signify his intention of coming, as the contracts must be let long before that time, and some inconvenience is caused which might have been easily prevented. From a personal point of view, in all probability such a man will not be able to get the dances he wants, as the orders are filled earlier. Hardly one half as many as attended last year have signed up so far; and with this small number it will be impossible to give a Prom such as all wish. This is not a class but a Technology affair, and there should be a good representation from every class.

GRADUATE DINNERS.

The class of '84 held its twenty-second annual dinner last Wednesday at the Technology Club. Prof. H. W. Tyler, Prof. A. H. Gill, Prof. F. L. Bardwell, Prof. W. L. Puffer, and Mr. A. L. Rotch, of the corporation, attended.

The class of '05 held its first annual reunion at Hotel Marlave Friday night last, with seventy-one members present. The graduate secretary, R. H. W. Lord, presided, and introduced Isaac Litchfield, '85, a member of the Technology fund committee, who spoke on the need of further subscriptions from the class to the support of this fund, which has already passed the $200,000 mark. Over $1250 was subscribed on the spot, and arrangements were made for more than doubling this figure.

COLLEGE NOTES.

A new library building is being erected on the Yale campus.

The University of Colorado has received an estate known as Manitou Park about twenty miles west of Colorado Springs. The gift is to establish a school of forestry and includes a fine hotel and cottages, the revenue of which will be used for endowment of the school, as well as several thousand acres of forest.

Indiana is the only state which has a solid delegation of college-bred men in the two houses of Congress. Heretofore the state which ranked highest in this particular was Massachusetts. The Indiana men have an unbroken record of collegiate education.

The announcement has been made that Andrew Carnegie has offered to Brown University $150,000 toward the new $300,000 library which the corporation has decided to build. At the suggestion of Mr. Carnegie the library will be known as the John Hay Memorial Library. Hay was an alumnus of Brown, class of 1858. It is planned to build a library capable of holding several hundred thousand books, with a reading-room for 400 students, and separate rooms for the various departments of study. The work of construction will begin as soon as the total funds are in hand.

Lost.—In toilet room of Eng. C, an open face gold watch with leather fob. Finder please communicate with J. L. ACKERSON, XIIIa., 261 Newbury Street.

AT THE THEATRES.

Tremont Theatre.

The first week of Mrs. Leslie Carter's engagement at the Tremont has fulfilled all expectations. Mrs.
Carter's new play, "Adrea," the second week of which begins at the Tremont on Monday, is striking for its romantic plot, its superb stage settings, and for the interpretation of its title role by the great actress. In it Mr. Belasco has fairly outdone himself, and Mrs. Carter is ably seconding his efforts. Mrs.
Carter's engagement at the Tremont
is limited to four weeks.

Majestic Theatre.

A multitude of New England playgoers have already enjoyed "Mizpah" at the Majestic Theatre, where that moving drama has entered upon its fourth week. It is a play to please everybody and thus happily achieves the distinction of being not only a footlight offering that commends itself to church-going people, but that it is genuinely attractive in its dramatic effectiveness and beauty.

Castle Square Theatre.

"The Fatal Card" is one of the most popular melodramas ever seen in Boston, and its revival at the Castle Square Theatre next week will recall to many playgoers the long run that it enjoyed at the old Boston Museum some eight or ten years ago. Its plot is realistic, fun of action and movement. The week after next "The Edge of the Storm" will receive at the Castle Square its first production in this country.
